

Assumption

- A center must have at least one staff member
- A staff member is employed by only one center
- A facility may not have a class that is conducted in it
- Since only the start date time for the first session is recorded, there is no need to consider it to be a multi-value attribute
- A qualified staff member may run multiple classes
- A centre runs at least one class and has at least one facility